THE UNIVERSE, THINK IN TERMS OF ENERGY, FREQUENCY AND VIBRATION’

Welcome to Healy World

Firstly, you are not here by accident. There is something inside you that has a glow of curiosity. Or by now, it may even be a full raging fire.

Either way, you have either been in someones thoughts, or you have received signs that has opened your mind to a new field of limitless possibilities. The field of Quantum.

In this step-by-step guide you will come on a journey with me to discover the incredible products and company that is Healy World, whilst also discovering the mission, vision and community that surround it.

Let's strap in, because you're about to have your mind blown with a device that fuses spirituality and science together - with impact, income and a little bit of universal magic.

The tale of how spiritual concepts of “energy” has swung from ridicule to respectability is one of the most fascinating and clinically significant stories that can be told.

We are literally watching the next evolution of science, medicine and healing unfold.

Just think - it was only 20 years ago traditional science was certain that the energy field did not exist. In a few decades scientists have gone from conviction to absolute certainty that an energy field around the human body (and planet) exists - and can be communicated with through frequencies.

Moreover, we have begun to understand the roles of energy fields in health, wellbeing and disease.

Frequencies are the language of cell communication, the key that opens connections and functions in the body.

Of course, humanity has always had an inner knowing of the power of frequencies or energy to heal. It has been the basis of all spirituality since the dawn of humanity. The main reason for the change in outlook in the scientific world is sensitive instruments have been developed that can now detect the minute energy fields around the human body.

We now know that every disease, illness and state of health has a specific frequency. A frequency that we can interact with and communicate with.

After centuries of neglect, frequency therapy can now take its place in clinical medicine, wellness and science.

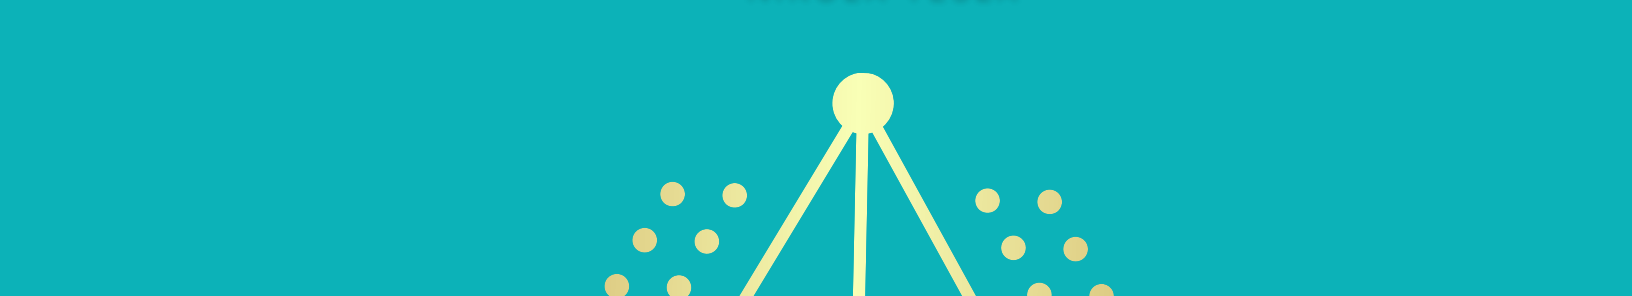

Frequency medicine is a non-invasive, drug-free, pain-free, and surgery-free therapy beginning to revolutionize healing.

At the very leading edge of this new paradigm of healing with a new personal device technology is Healy.

THE HEALY

The next evolution of biohacking, wellness, and healing is within a small portable frequency device.

The Healy Bioresonance device is a lightweight, wearable frequency therapy device that merges health, science, healing, technology and spirituality.

This holistic device is used to balance and support your body's bioenergetic field by activating and influencing the bodies natural healing codes via frequencies.

Healy is both a holistic wellness tool and medical device. Its is EU certified, FDA cleared and a CDSCO certified as a medical device for frequency therapy.

Healy is used for the improvement of pain, migraine, fibromyalgia, sleep, anxiety and depression. However, Healy isn't only focused on healing and surviving. As a wellness and biohacking tool, it's also a powerful device to enhance your lifestyle. Healy was also designed to help you awaken and thrive.

With over 120 programs including sleep, beauty, learning, chakras, meridians, productivity, mental balance and fitness - there is a frequency program for every area of life - at every stage of life.

Take a moment to consider the fact that since you are made of atoms and that atoms are approximately 5% physical particles and 95% energy field, doesn't it make sense to address imbalances on an energetic level?

HOW DOES HEALY WORK?

Healy works via three main sources.

- 1) Frequency Therapy
- 2) The Quantum Sensor
- 2) The Cellular Voltage via Micro-Current

Everything in the universe is energy and everything has a frequency. Since every molecule in the world and every molecule in your body is made up of atoms, each has its own specific energetic signature. Its own frequency.

The Healy device measures and analyse your individual energetic imbalances on a physical, mental and emotional level against a database of over 10 million frequencies. Our bodies frequencies are picked up by the Healy quantum sensor, based on the science of quantum physics (see more next page).

It then customises a delivery program from a set of 144,000 frequency programs that have been tested to restore physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual balance. The specific frequencies needed for the bioenergetic field to come back into harmony and balance are then delivered to the body and energetic field.

Once the programs have been selected via resonance, the frequencies are delivered to the body via micro-current, scalar waves or vibrations into the field.

The micro-current delivery is highly effective as it also 'charges' the cellular voltage, bring the body to an optimal Healy state to accept the frequencies. Microcurrent optimises the cells energy by increasing ATP production by up to 500%, increasing amino acid transportation by 40% and increasing protein synthesis by 70%. It also improves communication across the cell membrane by increasing cell voltage potential. it helps to re-establish a healthy connection between the cells, the organs and the Information Field.

This is a crucial connection for healthy living and it is one which gets distorted or blocked as we suffer trauma, stress, illness, infection or injury.

Healy is like having a “Therapist In Your Pocket” because it can both analyse your state of health and deliver exactly what you need from a database of over 144,000 frequencies.

A DIVING DEEPER : The Quantum Sensor

What is a quantum sensor?

It is a specially designed scanning or sensing mechanism that can phase out 3-dimensional energetic interferences, allowing the Healy to exchange information in higher fields of energy. In these higher states of energetic information, the quantum sensor can pick up on critical core frequencies that influence our physical, mental and emotional wellbeing.

How does Healy do this?

Healy uses technology called Kozyrev. It was first used by Russian cosmonauts. Kozyrev is a sort of mirror that is designed to generate a scalar field that communicates with the information field - also sometimes called the (Akashic Field) The Kozyrev mirror is contained within a chamber inside the Healy that is able to protect it from the earth's electromagnetic field. Through this shielding, the chamber activity stops incoming interference that could interact with the process of the quantum sensor and its ability to send and receive information.

The chamber is made of different metals that cause electrons to bounce off the walls of the chamber. As the electrons interact there is a moment wherein they cancel each other out and attain a zero-wave point. At this point the scalar field is generated and released. The scalar field radiates out into the higher energetic fields outside of the Earth's electromagnetic field and away from local interference.

This allows for real time remote scanning of distortions in the Information field of a person. The quantum sensor then compares those oscillations with a database of 10 million frequencies to select the frequencies that are most related to the causative issues creating the disturbance within the bioenergetic field.

The Quantum Sensor Looks For Incoherence

The quantum sensor looks for incoherence (the energy distortions) so that it can work with frequencies that can bring more cohesion to the bioenergetic field.

The human being is itself a quantum sensor. At a core level we too are able to connect in this way to higher levels of energetic fields.

Healy is a beautiful little short cut into the mental, emotional, and spiritual energetic bodies to help clear out the blockages and trauma that can keep one in a disharmonious energy state. Healy can help us realign the heart with the mind and then down through the different layers to help the body heal itself through sets of frequency and field information.

The theory is we can penetrate energetic barriers of consciousness attained with the help of the Kozyrev (inside of the Healy). When using the Healy we can get through the energetic field of the earth, accessing a higher dimension of space and interact with system imbalances at their core. This is done with the help of the scalar waves / or scalar fields.
